APPOINTMENT OF CEO

The Company is very pleased to announce that Mr Kell Nielsen has joined the board of Voyager Resources as Chief Executive Officer.

Mr Nielsen is a highly regarded mineral industry professional with over 18 years experience covering a variety of commodities including gold, base metals, iron ore, phosphate and coal throughout Australia, Africa and North America. Mr Nielsen has been in management positions with junior and major resource companies including roles with Normandy and Placer Dome and most recently as Technical Director for Peak Resources.

Mr Nielsen has performed in diverse roles from grass roots exploration through to management of large resource development teams, including the exploration and development of the +7 million ounce Wallaby Gold Deposit located near Laverton in Western Australia. Mr Nielsen has also consulted to BHP Billiton's iron ore and coal divisions as a team leader for Snowden Mining Consultants. He has a geology degree from Macquarie University in Sydney and is a member of the AusIMM.

Mr Nielsen will play an important role in the promoting and growth of Voyager Resources and the board welcomes him.
